P.C.

. This is an application received from the convict who is in jail. He has filed an appeal against the order of conviction and sentence but belatedly and hence this application for condonation of delay.

. As per the office note the appeal is beyond time by 352 days. The applicant states that he could not engage a private Advocate due to the financial difficulties and, therefore, the delay has been caused in filing the appeal.

. We are satisfied that the delay deserves to be condoned and hence the application is allowed.
